

CETUSA Internship Program Offer

Start Date: ASAP
Hours: 40 hours per week
Duration: Flexible
Compensation: Experience based
Housing: Assisted to Find
Number of Positions Offered: 1
Field: Design

BELLINGHAM, WASHINGTON

Host Company Description: This native to Bellingham Apparel Company was founded in 2007 and has since built an extremely competitive presence in the modern fashion industry. The forward thinking team is looking for the best and most well versed design applicants with extensive knowledge in the design realm. Advanced graphic design knowledge is a must. Portfolio and extensive experience required on application.

Training/Internship Program Details:

- Learn the apparel design process from drawing board to ready to sell product
- Designing graphics for apparel using modern tools and programs
- Developing designs of in house clothing line as well as those of customers
- Help each other to advance knowledge, skills, and the effective materialization of attractive design techniques

Applicant Qualifications:

- To apply for the Internship program, you must be a design undergraduate student OR a recent graduate starting the program within 12 months of graduation.
- Applying interns must be in their final year of studies
- Advanced English skills
- Creative, motivated, eager to learn. Seeking innovative and modern young forward thinkers.

How to Apply: Submit a professional USA formatted resume to usmexico@cetusa.org. Include portfolio/examples of work (required) and cover letter (preferred). Indicate desired start and end dates, 5-digit offer number, as well as program offer title

