

CETUSA Internship Program Offer

Start Date: January – May 2016
Duration: 6 months
Hours: 32-40 hours per week
Compensation: UNPAID
Housing: assisted to find
Field: (10236) Environmental Justice Advocacy Program

SAN FRANCISCO,
CALIFORNIA

Host Company Description: The host company is a non-profit, grassroots organization that represents interests of health and environmental justice together with urban, rural, and indigenous communities. The company has a broad network of volunteers and supporters from a broad spectrum of backgrounds, including community residents, tribal leaders and members, activists, students, professors, attorneys, scientists, and artists.

The program is focused on lobby and advocacy campaigns, current energy issues related to climate change, pollution, environment and health, mastering research skills, public speaking and learning about the role of various state and federal government agencies.

How to Apply: Submit a professional resume with a professional photograph to usmexico@cetusa.org. Indicate desired start and end dates, 5-digit program number and title

Applicant Qualifications:

- To apply for the Internship program, applicants must be public policy, administration, political science or environmental studies undergraduate/graduate students OR a be recent graduates who begin program within 12 months of the graduation date
- Must be passionate about environmental issues, grassroots political organizing
- Excellent written and oral communication in English is required

