

CETUSA Internship Program Offer

Start Date: ASAP

Hours: 40 hours per week

Duration: Flexible

Compensation: Experience based

Housing: Assisted to Find

Number of Positions Offered: 1

Field: Production and Manufacturing engineering

BELLINGHAM, WASHINGTON

Host Company Description: This native to Bellingham Apparel Company was founded in 2007 and has since built an extremely competitive presence in the modern fashion industry. The forward thinking team is looking for an innovative do-it-yourselfer with extensive knowledge and experience in production line optimization. Together, the participant and host company will aim for Lean production assembly-line by breaking down and analyzing the flaws in manufacturing chain efficiency.

Applicant Qualifications:

- To apply for the Internship program, you must be a Manufacturing or Production Engineering undergraduate student OR a recent graduate starting the program within 12 months of graduation.
- Applying interns must be in their final year of studies
- Advanced English skills
- Creative, motivated, eager to learn. Seeking innovative and modern young forward thinkers.

Training/Internship Program Details:

- Become familiar with operation and production process as it currently exists
- Analyzing the different aspects of the process and actively innovating changes towards a flawlessly efficient system
- Developing designs of in house clothing line as well as those of customers
- Help each other to advance knowledge, skills, and the effective materialization of attractive

How to Apply: Submit a USA style formatted professional resume to usmexico@cetusa.org. Indicate desired start and end dates, include 3-digit program code (starting with "m") and title in the subject field.

